Missy began dancing and performing at the young age of 7. She began dancing locally in various Victoria studios, trained in Jazz and Tap but especially excelling in Hip Hop and Street styles.

Missy continues her training by attending regular conventions, master classes and intensives with some of the world's most recognized talents, such as: Stephen "Twitch" Boss, Luther Brown, Sho-Tyme, Jrock & Gus Buimbery.

Honoured with countless awards and recognition for her dance talents, including "Junior Dance Award", "Senior Dance Award," in and out of school dance programs, and the "Denny Award" through the Victoria Operatic Society. Missy has played lead rolls in various stage theatrics, such as "Bye Bye Birdie" along side of many self-choreographed pieces in local and school festivals and events!

Missy currently teaches Junior, Youth and Adult Hip Hop/Street, Jazz and Preschool Age Creative Dance/Movement. Missy's passion and talent shines in the studio, being motivated to inspire others as dance has inspired her.
